Demo the latest from NewLook

Peter Villagomez from NewLook will be offering a demo on some of the best practices in working with NewLook's Decorative Concrete Solutions. This demo will provide you with the products & techniques you need to create finishes that will AMAZE & IMPRESS your customers. Sample products will be available to work with at the demo.

NewLook's line of stains, prep products and sealers is constantly growing. The training will include information about using the contractor grade, single component Endura line of stains, NewLook's eco-friendly concrete prep products and the latest in concrete sealer technology.
